CAREER OBJECTIVE

I'm a fresh graduate with a passion for Graphic design, Web design, and UI/UX development, blending creativity with functionality to craft engaging digital experiences. My academic journey and internship projects have equipped me with hands-on experience in web design, user-centered development, and front-end technologies. As a former student leader, I've developed strong communication, teamwork, and project management skills, ready to bring value, adaptability, and drive to any professional environment.
